All The World's

Act I, Scenes I through VII have been completed, and as the curtain rises, Act II, Scenes VIII through XII are now in progress on the stage. In Scenes VIII and IX much of the action is devoted to getting adjusted and learning to study. Scene X signifies the middle step in the production, and identifies the professionals from the amateurs. While Scene XI progresses, the actors are becoming more aware of the approach of Scene XII and are putting forth their very best to reach this highest point in the play.

A Stage...

Finally, as Scene XII comes into view, the players show an enthusiastic pride in accomplishment. Scene XII proceeds in a whirlwind of activity and reaches its climax in a splendor of blue and white. With much pomp and circumstance the curtain falls on a weary but exultant troop of players. All is silent on stage until a new play and a new cast appears next fall.

... All The Men And

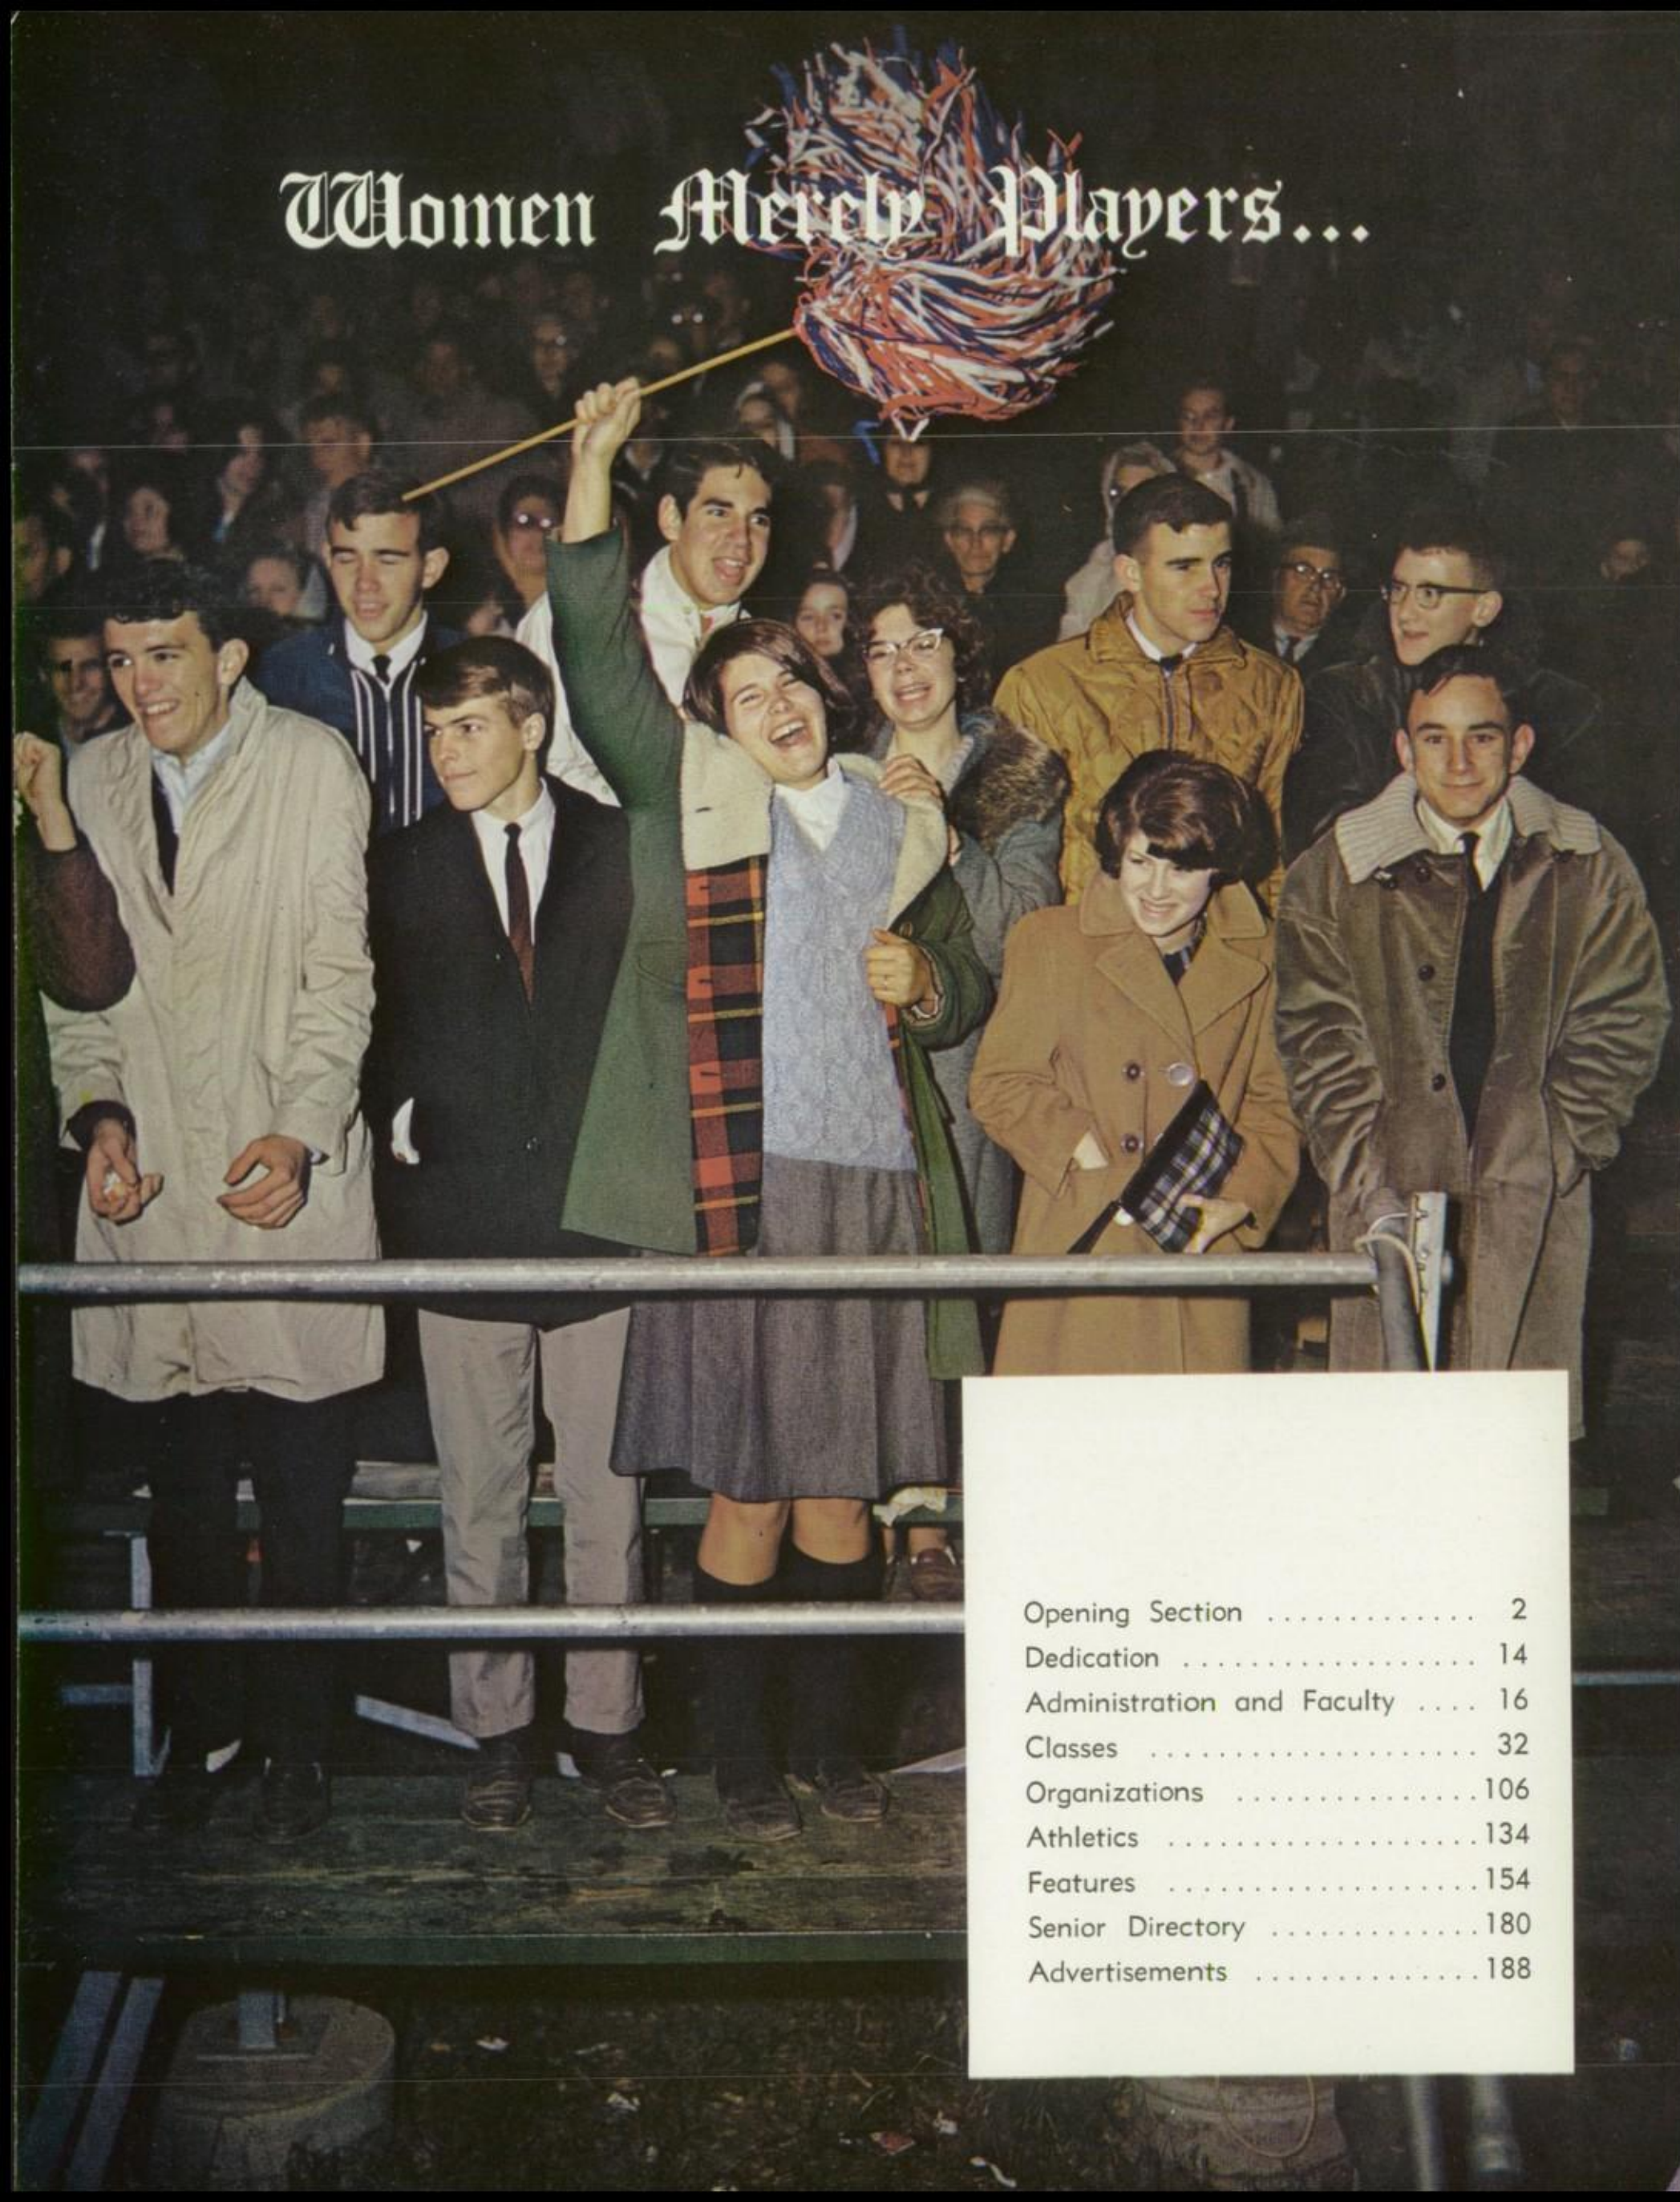

Hustling and bustling in the halls, cheering at the games, and sharing happy moments with other students are all representative of the friendly atmosphere which hovers around ACHS. Smiling, happy faces indicate the pleasure that each student gets from playing his role at Alleghany.

Each day brings a new and different role for the student to play — some of them serious, some of them comical; but every role draws him more deeply into the activity of school life.

During this second year of Alleghany's history, there have been changes in the roles of the students and changes in those who take part in the production of a memorable school year. With these changes, however, comes a stronger bond between the students and fonder memories for each student.

Next year some of the players and producers will change again, but those who participated in the '64-'65 school year will never forget the success of this second year.

...They Have Their Exits

With mixed emotions the seniors leave ACHS to begin the next Act in their lives. They must now assume the roles of high school graduates and must face the adult world.

Varied expressions indicate the mixed feelings regarding this next big part in life. For some of these seniors, only relief is felt because the long twelve years of study and worry is over. Other students feel sad about leaving the good times which being a student offers them. Anticipation of the near future brings joyous expressions to some of these faces, while uncertainty of the future is revealed by several anxious faces.

Each of these people realizes that his life as a student at ACHS is nearly over. Each of them will take on a new role. Each of them will exit the high school world as a student and will enter the adult world as a member.

And Their Entrances...

After concluding the first seven years of elementary school, the eighth graders finally reach those long-awaited halls of "The High School." Looking lost, scared, and bewildered, these youngsters enter ACHS to begin their roles as high school students.

Schedule cards, homerooms, and bells ringing are new experiences for the youngest and smallest members of the student body. Time is given for adjusting to the high school scene and for learning a new way to study. New people are met, new subjects are discovered and new goals are set.

Having survived the first month of high school, the new members of the cast at ACHS begin to fit more smoothly into the atmosphere at Alleghany.

When the eighth graders enter the final stage of their school careers, they are already preparing for their exit into the world. As eighth grade students enter the ninth grade, progress to the tenth grade, then reach the eleventh, and finally the twelfth, each step draws them closer to the world of adulthood. Life appears to be much entering and exiting to these young actors, but each new role offers them adventure, challenge, and rewards surpassing those previously experienced.

...And One Man In His Time

Dennis Harmon has learned that studying is important if you want to succeed.

Each member of the team has his own part to play, as Howard Liptrap has discovered.

Boy Scout Jedy Sartain exhibits one of the Scout Laws—loyalty.

Plays Many Parts...

...Meditation...

Being a Senior provides just cause for serious moments of meditation. Donna Bennett thinks about the many decisions which lie before her in this all-important year.

...Co-Operation...

Resource information for after graduation plans, a sympathetic ear for personal problems or a helping hand for pressing situations are characteristics which help to develop good student-Guidance Department co-operation.

Rufus Bradley is one of the many students who finds it necessary to discuss future college plans with Miss O'Farrell.

...Competition...

Quite often students do not realize that they are competing with thousands of other students for an outstanding role in the fast moving world of today. Practicing drills and perfecting skills are important in preparation for the future if one is in the commercial field. Joyce Kern realizes that hard work and efficiency are necessary to be outstanding in commercial activities.

...Relaxation...

Students need a break every now and then in order to have a well-balanced, healthy attitude and there is no place better suited for relaxing than around one of the large cafeteria tables. Johnny Stinnett, Susan Persinger, "Bunny" Yachan, Dewayne Loan, Barney Butler, Sheila Loomis, Ronnie Rudy, and Mary Beth Watson seem to be enjoying this break.

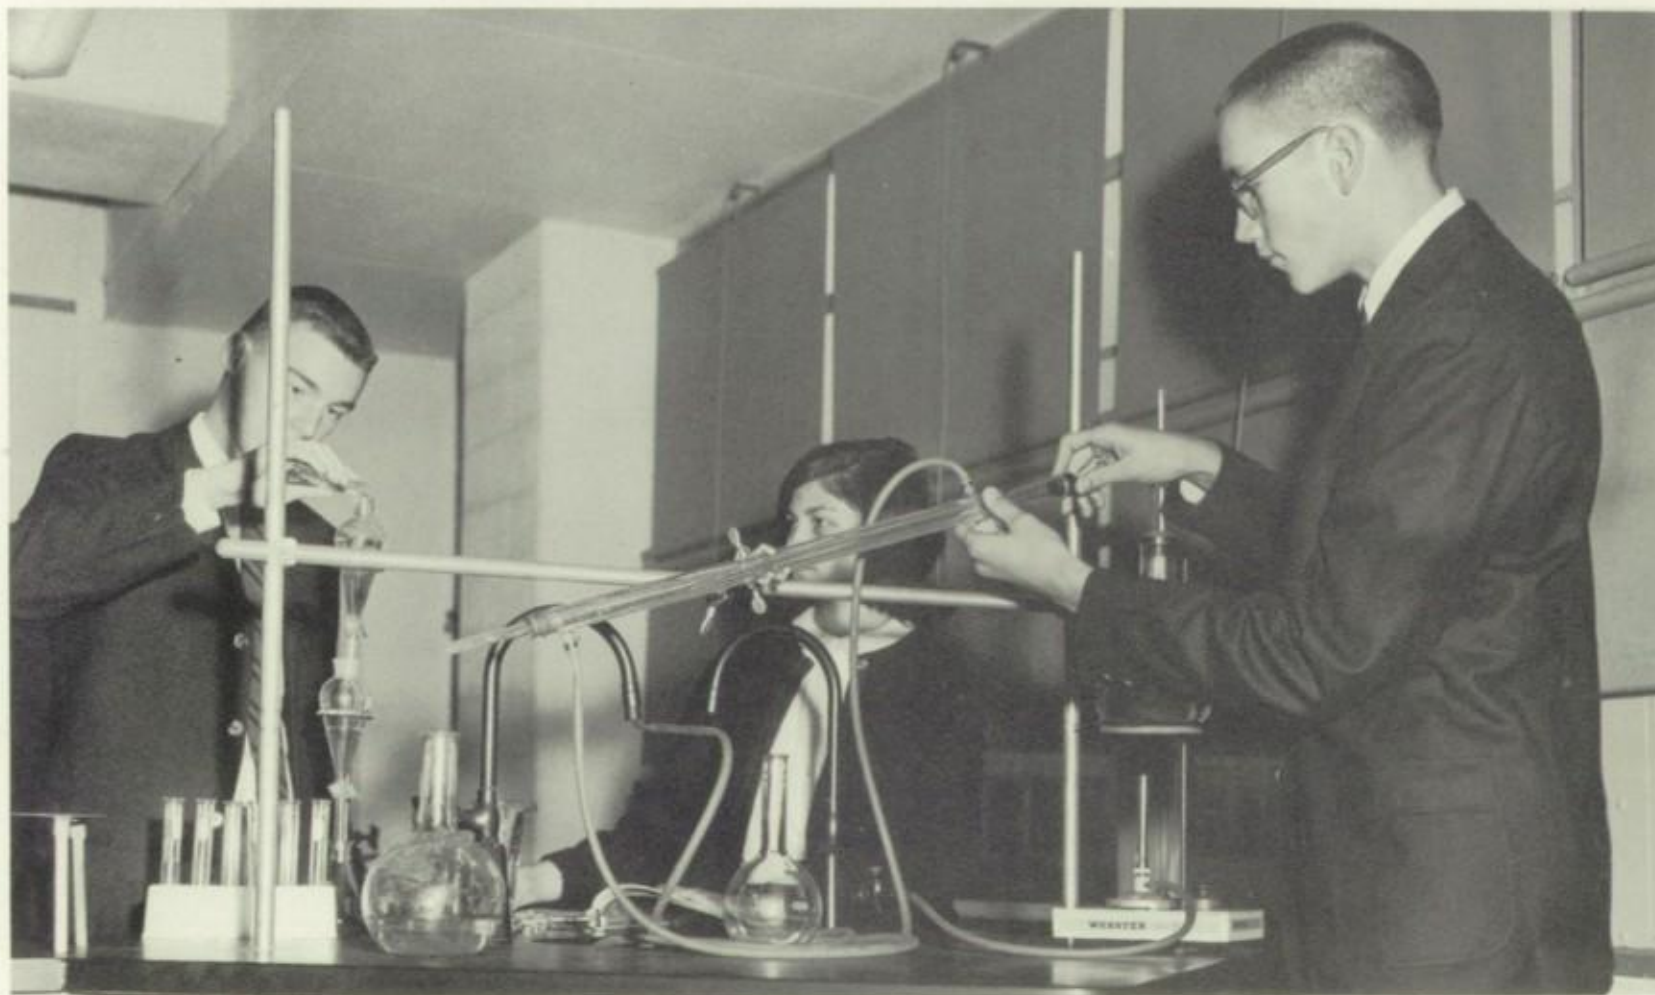

...Aspiration...

Much thought, consideration, and planning go into plans for one's future role in life. Aspirations of Navy life fill Gregg Howard's head with new ideas and plans. Perhaps Gregg finds it amusing to picture himself as a sailor.

...Experimentation...

Allen Downey, Sandra Dressler, and Jim Bowen learn to do experiments in the chemistry laboratory. These students are well aware that much knowledge, academic and general, is given through experimentation and study.

Before They Made Their Adieus...

Soon, for the last time, the seniors will appear as star performers before this audience. The final curtain will go down. They will take their bows. And the great play on which their lives have been centered for the last four years will be over in a single night.

Some of the actors, weary of the demanding schedule, are thankful that the end is near. But whether it is with quickened step or with reluctant tread that they leave, they are, nevertheless, grateful to those who have directed them in their first major roles.

College of William and Mary, M.Ed.

Alleghany County's School Administrative officials are outstanding in their support of public school education. During this second year of ACHS's history, decisions and policies have been made by the school board for the betterment of ACHS. The school board has approved a higher wage increase for the teachers for the 1965-1966 school year. Promoting a better curricula with less repetition from year to year has been one of the school board's prime objectives. Higher student attendance has also been emphasized.

Working behind the scenes most of the time, these officials strive for higher standards of education in Alleghany County.

Guidance

Guidance Department

Doyet Moore seeks help concerning his future education from Miss O'Farrell.

One of the duties of the Guidance Department is to administer achievement tests.

Guidance counselors at ACHS do much to lead students into the various fields of study at the school. Students are placed in business, shop, general, or college prep courses. These students are not placed in these various courses at random; instead, they are screened and are then placed on the basis of their abilities and interests.

ACHS's guidance program also provides for several national tests to be given each year in order to help students find out more about their national rating with other students. National Merit Scholarship tests and the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Tests are given to juniors who are preparing for college. Aptitude tests are given to the freshmen and juniors each year in an attempt to help them choose their vocations in future years.

Students seeking summer employment in local firms and businesses are given help by the guidance counselors. They help the students to find job openings and to make the proper applications. Juniors and seniors are aided by the guidance department in choosing the colleges they wish to attend.

Class officers, George Morris, Scottie Lockard, and Loretta Perkins, relax in front of ACHS and talk over the new experiences which being in high school have offered them.

Learning to read schedule cards and finding their way around the school are two obstacles facing the eighth graders when they enter ACHS.

"Drat that locker!" exclaims Bernard Evans as he struggles before school to get into his locker. Those demons which hide books, coats, and trinkets are real problems.

"Society, saith the text, is the happiness of life."

LOVE'S LABOUR'S LOST
Act IV Scene II

Doyet Moore looks over the agenda as Mary Andrews reads the minutes of the preceding S.C.A. meeting.

Mr. Wendell Maynard,
Sponsor of S.C.A.

Student Co-operative

Association

Alleghany's Student Co-operative Association has continued, in its second year, to provide efficient government for our school. Its activities include setting up appropriate rules and seeing that these rules are obeyed. S.C.A. members, each of whom represents his homeroom, work together to see that A.C.H.S. functions properly and to help create an institution which will warrant the pride of students in years to come.

Hall monitor Rod Bush checks Jim Heironimus's hall pass.

Doyet W. Moore, President of the S.C.A., confers with Mr. Cvizic.

Junior Tri-Hi-Y

Tri-Hi-Y at Alleghany is divided into a Junior Tri-Hi-Y, composed of underclassman girls, and Senior Tri-Hi-Y, which is made up of junior and senior girls. As Christian girls' clubs, the organizations' prime purpose is to promote Christianity throughout the home, school, and community.

Senior Tri-Hi-Y this year sponsored a sock hop after a football game and the Sweetheart Dance in February. They also sent representatives to the Model General Assembly in Richmond. Junior Tri-Hi-Y girls sold A.C.H.S. pennants as one of their projects. Both organizations sent Christmas baskets to the Covington Christmas Mother for distribution among needy families.

OFFICERS: Alice Howard, President; Linda Howard, Vice-President; Donna Madison, Treasurer; Patsy Nicely, Reporter; Janie Reynolds, Chaplain. Not Shown: Connie Shires, Secretary.

Senior Tri-Hi-Y

Miss Mary Litts Burton and Mrs. Enza Reynolds, Sponsors of Sr. Tri-Hi-Y.

Key Club

Sponsored by Kiwanis International, the Key Club is composed of boys who possess high scholastic averages and outstanding qualities of leadership. This organization serves to prepare its members for the nearing future and to stimulate their interest in civic activities.

Key Club at A.C.H.S. is sponsored by Mr. Robert Jefferies. Among their many activities this year, the club participated in basketball games with area high schools and sent representatives to a Key Club Convention in Washington, D. C.

John Hall, Barry Daniel, and Curtis King fight for the ball during the Allegheny-Covington Key Club basketball game.

OFFICERS: Jedy Sartain, President; Greg Howard, Vice-President; Mr. Robert Jefferies, Sponsor; Skip Clemmons, Secretary; Tommy Nichols, Treasurer.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS: John Swartz, Skip Clemmons, Tommy Nichols, Greg Howard, Chairman, Jedy Sartain, John Hall, Allen Downey.

Under the guidance of Miss Rebecca Thompson, THE PATRIOT staff publishes the school's bi-monthly newspaper. The staff works long and tiring hours on layouts, typing, and features; in addition to class time, individuals spend time at home and before and after school. Evidence of this industriousness is present in every issue of THE PATRIOT, and its popularity indicates the value of such a well-presented newspaper at A.C.H.S.

Sandra Dressler and Miss Thompson discuss an issue of THE PATRIOT.

Seated: Beverley Siple, Laura Pinckard, Muffin Padgett, Jo Jo Herald, Jeannie Wright, Dreama Bush, Joyce Kern, Sandra Simmons. Standing: Bill Salyers, Horton Beirne, Johnny Stinnett, Johnny Taylor, Michael Griffith, Susan Reynolds.

Alleghany's yearbook, ALCOVA, was created by a six-member staff guided by Mrs. Mary Fairfield during the first semester and Mrs. Joyce Barber during the second semester. Each person was responsible for a section of the book, but all combined efforts for decisions, problems, and areas of difficulty. Determination triumphed in moments of frustration and hardship, harvesting a sense of achievement and pride in the second edition of ALCOVA.

Mrs. Barber, ALCOVA sponsor, and Brenda Crowder, Editor, approve pictures for the yearbook.

From Classroom to job.

of America

All students enrolled in the distributive education program are members of the Alleghany Chapter of the Distributive Education Club of America. Under the leadership of Mr. Richard C. Duff, DECA's primary purpose is to prepare interested students for the business world. This preparation is carried out not only during the half-day in which the students work, but also in daily classroom study. DECA's members compete in local, district, state, and national contests and participate in various activities pertaining to their studies.

Mr. Duff, DECA sponsor, discusses on-the-job training with Joe Peters.

OFFICERS: Seated: Brenda Crowder, President. Standing: Steve Patrick, Treasurer; Kathy Montgomery, Vice-President; Cindy Walton, Secretary; Jeannie Wright, Parliamentarian; Brenda Mc-Cauley, Chaplain; Pat Taliaferro, Historian; Sharon Sizemore, Reporter.

Brenda Crowder, president, calls the meeting to order. Cindy Walton, secretary, prepares to read the minutes, and Kathy Montgomery, vice-president, waits to introduce the guest speaker.

Mary Ellen Byers, below an incoming officer, lights her candle from the "of America table"; while Cindy Walton, secretary, looks on.

Future Business Leaders of America

The Future Business Leaders of America is a national organization for all students enrolled in business subjects. FBLA seeks to develop competent business leadership, to create more interest and understanding in the intelligent choice of business occupations, to encourage members to improve homes and communities, to develop character and patriotism, and to encourage improvement in scholarship and school loyalty. By participating in a cooperative effort in worthy undertakings for improvement of business, the members hope to become efficient and recognized business men and women. Activities this year included sponsoring a dance, operating a concession stand during a home game, and organizing a car wash. Highlighting the year was the installation services, which altered the group's status from a business club to the Future Business Leaders of America. To terminate the school year, the annual picnic was held in May at the home of a sponsor.

Miss Elizabeth Smith and Mr. Richard Duff, Sponsors of the Art Club.

Appreciation and recognition of art are learned and practiced by the members of ACHS's Art Club. Club members are those students who have a desire to gain more experience in art than the classroom allows. One of the thrilling experiences which the club enjoyed this year was the opportunity to exhibit some of the members' work on television when ACHS visited "Saturday Session." Miss Smith and Mr. Duff, Art Club sponsors, offer able guidance and assistance whenever called upon.

Art Club

Seated: Sarah Pentz, Nicky Simmons, Bubbles Simmons, Cherie Davis, Mildred Patterson, Susie Arritt, Sandra Bradley, Susie Bradley, Patsy Simpson, Donna Bennett. Standing: Ronnie Rudy,

The Varsity Club

OFFICERS: Jim Heironimus, President; Rod Bush, Vice-President; Barry Daniel, Secretary; Charles Hunnell, Treasurer.

Boys who have earned letters in sports at A.C.H.S. make up The Varsity Club. Members of the club are participants in football, basketball, wrestling, baseball, track, and cross-country. Formed solely for the purpose of honoring the athletes, the group enjoys outings and gatherings throughout the year. This year, the boys' primary activities was a spring picnic.

Future Nurses Club

Girls planning to enter nurses' training belong to the Future Nurses Club at Alleghany. They are sponsored by Mrs. Elizabeth Shelor and advised by Mrs. Constance Lowman, the county school nurse. Organized for the purpose of encouraging interest in the nursing vocation, the group participates in activities pertaining to the medical field. This year, the F.N.C. attended a meeting of registered nurses and toured a local hospital.

OFFICERS: Seated: Judy Worley, President. Standing: Mrs. Elizabeth Shelor, Sponsor; Karen Patrick, Secretary; Primmie Long, Treasurer; Laverne Paxton, Vice-President.

Junior Classical League

At A.C.H.S., the Latin Club is affiliated with the national Junior Classical League, and is sponsored by our Latin teacher, Miss Gleason. Composed of interested students presently taking Latin and those who have taken it in the past, the club's purpose is to encourage interest in Latin and to broaden members' knowledge of Latin influence today. One of the outstanding activities of the Latin Club was an inspiring Christmas program presented to the student body. In many ways the organization has contributed to the intellectual growth at Alleghany.

OFFICERS: Judy Bazarre, Reporter; Hunter Fridley, Vice-President; Sandra Hepler, President; Mary Andrews, Secretary; Donnie Wheatley, Treasurer.

Miss Lucy E. Gleason, sponsor of Junior Classical League.

Future Homemakers of America

Miss Jane Johnson and Mrs. Peggy Perdue, sponsors of F.H.A.

Interest in home economics and related studies is encouraged by the Alleghany Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America. Composed of both home economics students and out-of-class members, the organization is guided by the home economics instructors. Many A.C.H.S. social events are sponsored by the F.H.A.; two of these are the Christmas formal and the Sadie Hawkins Dance. In the spring the club has a Mother-Daughter Banquet and a fashion show, in which the girls model their classroom achievements. Members of the F.H.A. serve for several dances and banquets of other organizations.

Choir

"Practice makes perfect, so practice, practice, practice!" These were familiar words to the members of the ACHS choir this year. Mr. Baber worked with the choir members individually and as a group to prepare them for the concerts at Christmas and in the spring. Not only did the choir offer its members valuable training in vocal music but also the opportunity to get away from the classroom routine.

Occasionally the choir was asked to work with another organization to present a program to the student body. Participating in the graduation exercises was another highlight in the year for the choir.

Being in the choir did mean working hard and practicing, but it also meant learning a new way to work together as a team to produce winning results.

Cherie Davis rehearses a difficult number, accompanied by Mr. Baber.

High School Band

Mr. Leonard W. Baber, Director of Band

"All together now, one, two, three..." and another day of band practice had begun for the ACHS band.

This year the band learned that hard work does pay off. Due to the outstanding spring concert, the band uniform fund rose by an enormous sum and the uniforms became more of a reality than just a dream.

Another step forward for the band this year was the formation of a team of majorettes. With the advice of Miss Rebecca Thompson, the majorettes will be prepared to lead the band through numerous march routines and drills when the long-awaited day arrives.

After a year of seeing hopes and dreams come true under the capable direction of Mr. Leonard Baber, the band is looking forward to next year.

For Outstanding Achievement ACHS Recognizes

John Owens, winner of the District Forensics Contest

Eunice Davidson, recipient of the DAR Citizenship Award

Faye Persinger, ACHS's exchange student to New York.

Sideline expressions reflect a tense moment.

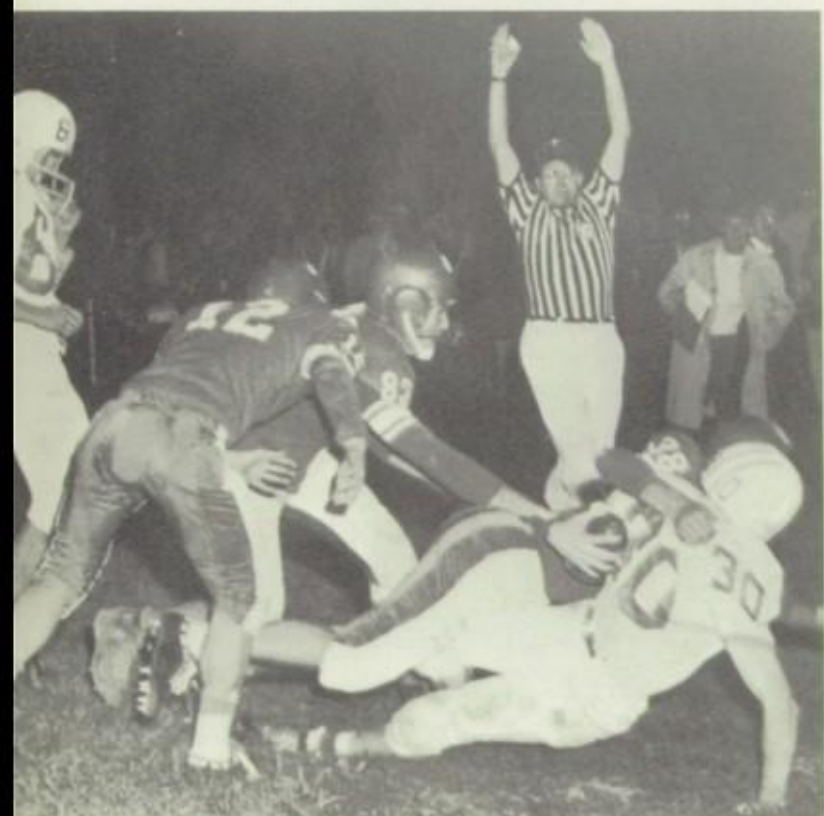

Spirit runs high at Alleghany the week before the Clifton game.

The Colts hustle to tackle a doomed Mountaineer.

The Lexington defense fails to stop Curtis King's drive for a touchdown.

Homer Loan's tremendous blocking power is demonstrated in the Rockbridge game.

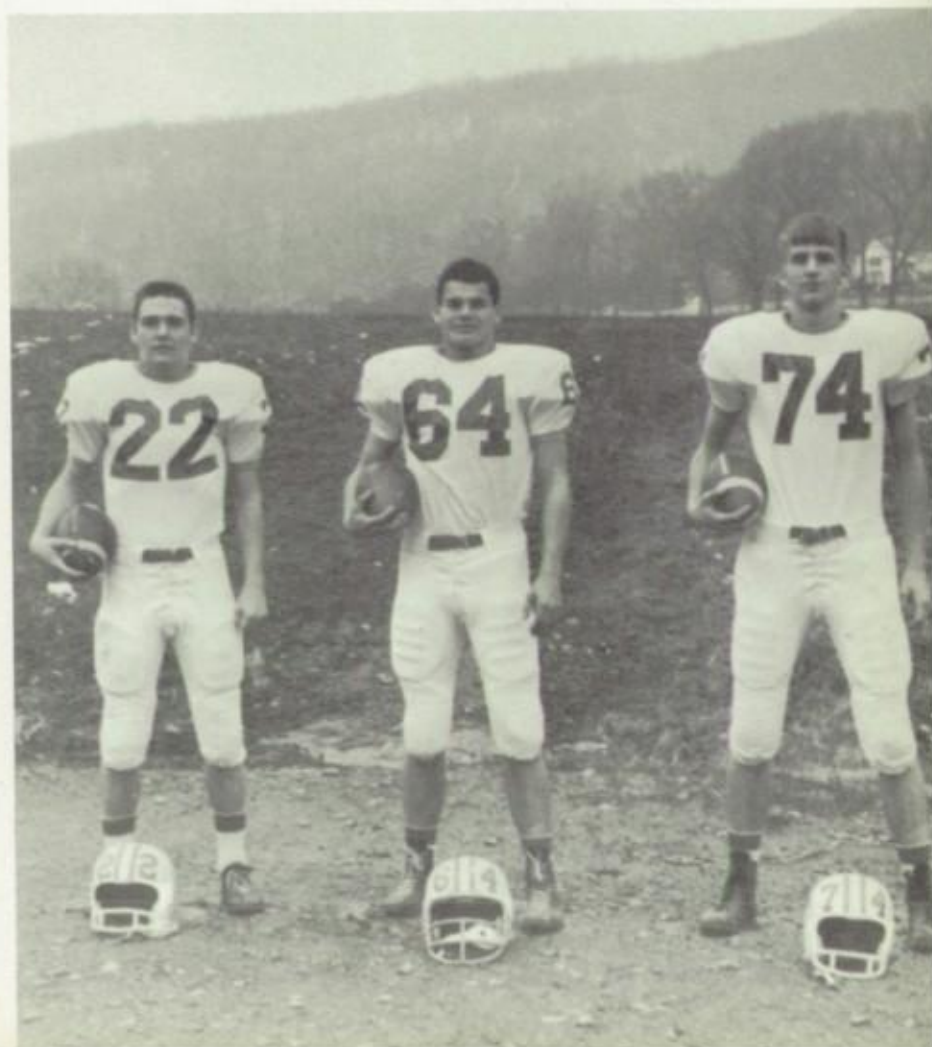

First row: John Showalter, Mike Griffith, Steve Patrick, Johnny Taylor, A. W. Alleghany High's 1964 football team compiled an impressive 7-2 record. The first six opponents the Colts met were defeated. Included in these first six was our arch-rival, Clifton Forge, who was defeated 19-7 on their own field.

After winning thirteen successive games over a two year span and leading the District 5 title chase all season, Alleghany was upset by Wilson Memorial 7-0. This defeat eliminated our chance for the District Championship, but the players picked up many post-season laurels.

Homer Loan (64), a junior, was the player selected from ACHS for the All-State first team. Jim Heironimus (74) was the All-State second team selection, and Johnny Taylor (22), who was the second highest scorer in the district, earned berths on the All-State third team.

Varsity Cheerleaders in Action

Joyous smiles indicate that the Colts near another victory.

Cheerleading has as its main objective the promotion of good sportsmanship and school spirit. Fulfilling these goals means the hours of practice, the black eyes for the skit, the sore muscles, and the ever-lasting smile. Rewards are a cheering crowd, a victorious team, or the winning of the coveted District 5 cheerleading trophy. Cheerleading is keeping the true meaning of "spirit" alive in the hearts of athletes and spectators . . . be it in victory or defeat.

This skit, given by the cheerleaders, entitled "Little Red, White, and Blue Victory" aroused laughter as well as enthusiasm.

Linda, Beverley, and Sandra kick up their heels and toss their hair as they exhort the crowd to cheer.

Varied expressions reveal the emotions which accompanied winning the cheerleading trophy.

Colts on the Court

Varsity squad: Bill McNabb, Artie Morris, Homer Loan, Wayne Howard, Howard Liptrap, George Yachan, Jim Heironimus, Ralph

Whitehead, John Dressler, Johnny Smith. Kneeling: Johnny Taylor, and Rod Bush, co-captains.

Jim, Johnny, and Wayne listen intently to Coach Walker's strategy in a crucial moment.

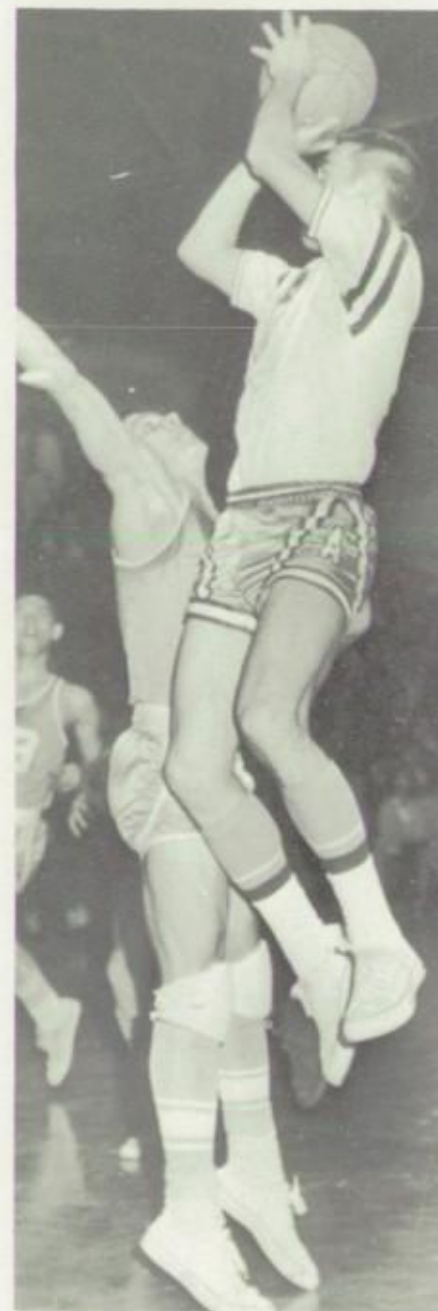

Compiling an admirable record, the 1965 Colts gained a total of 13 wins and 3 losses in regular play. In the first game of the season, Alleghany fell victim to the Covington Cougars by a score of 63-62. But, in their next three encounters the Colts captured breath-taking wins at the expense of Fort Defiance (48-47), James River (64-63) and Buffalo Gap (59-57).

Trampling on, the Colts sent the Clifton Forge Mountaineers down to defeat by a score of 57 to 53. In hard-fought games, Alleghany gave up their next two contests to Buffalo Gap (56-69) and Clifton Forge (54-61). To gain revenge for their first loss the Colts dropped the Covington Cougars to a 72-61 defeat in a great second half comeback. In the last two encounters of regular play the team gained victories over Wilson Memorial (86-83) and James River (71-55). When tournament time rolled around, Alleghany smeared the James River Knights (71-55) and eked out a 55-54 victory over the Fort Defiance Indians only to lose to the Buffalo Gap Bisons by a score of 43 to 55. But the Colts did not come home empty-handed. Besides being runner-ups in District 5, the Colts tied for second place for the sportsmanship award and placed two members on the All District team: Johnny Taylor on the first and Rod Bush on the second. The 1964-65 Colt Seniors, Johnny Taylor, Jim Heironimus, Wayne Howard, Johnny Smith, Howard Liptrap and Rod Bush will be lost to the team by graduation this spring, a loss which will be hard to regain next season.

Reach District Tournament

These three Colt rebounders, Rod Bush, Jim Heironimus and Johnny Taylor are shown clearing the boards high above everyone, a position not unusual for them.

Floating gracefully in midair, agile Johnny Taylor evades Ernie Miller of Ft. Defiance to score in a 55-54 victory at the District 5 tournament.

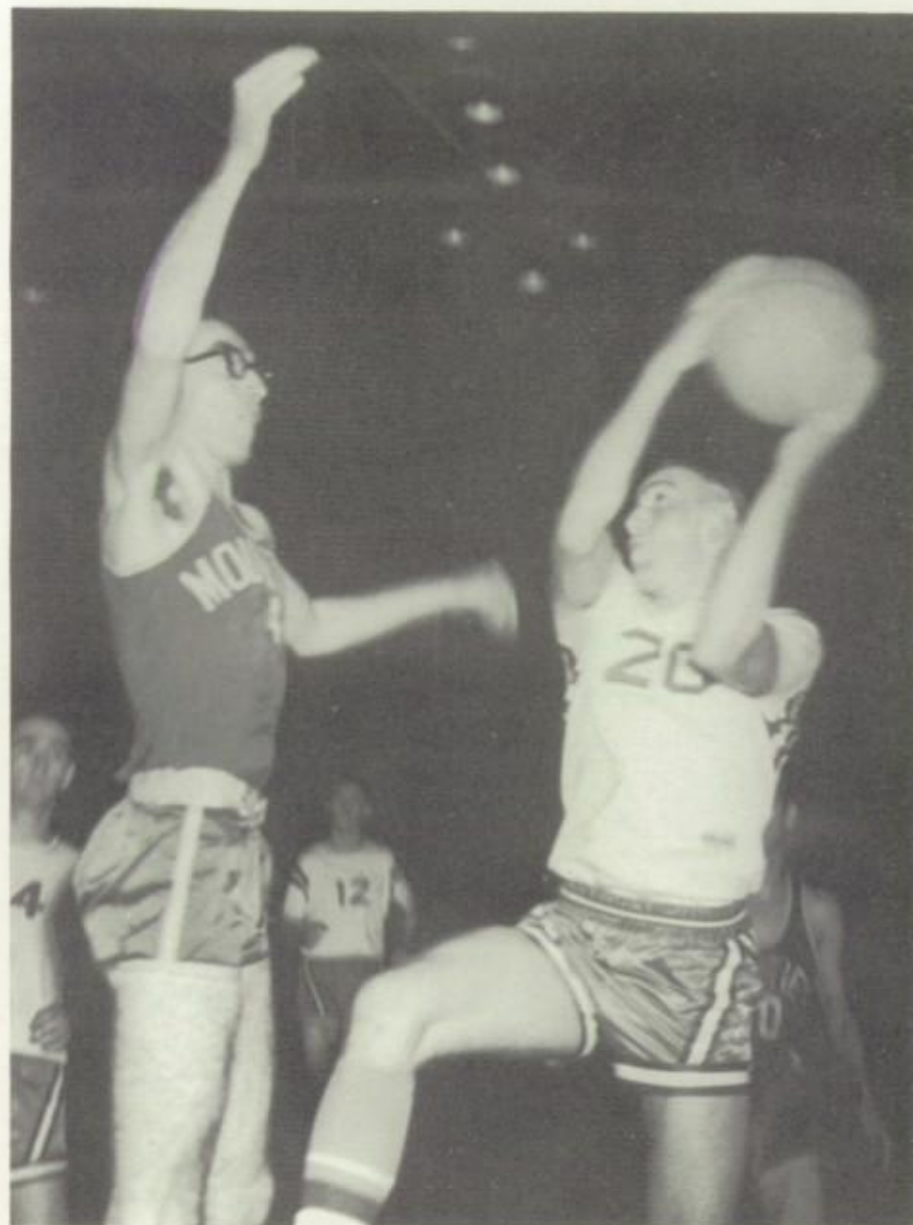

The Colts' Heironimus tips it in to gain two points in the semifinal game of the District 5 tournament which the Colts won 71-55 over James River.

Smith, Howard, Taylor, and Bush are caught with eyes glued on the ball, awaiting its descent as Liptrap out jumps his James River opponent.

Colts, Taylor, Liptrap, Howard and Bush battle with the Mountaineers' Hickman for a loose ball.

Rodney Bush passes the ball as he is guarded by Clifton Forge's John Dean.

While Coach Walker gives one of his half-time pep talks, Jim Heironimus and Bill McNabb seem to be contemplating his words.

J.V.'s Have Successful Season

Steve Byerly captures a rebound in a victory over James River.

Capturing a winning season, the 1965 Colt junior varsity squad, coached by Sam Mitchell, comprised a record of 12 wins and 7 defeats. Highlights of the season were: the 42-36 victory over Clifton Forge led by Frankie Dobbins' 17 points, and the double victories over James River, Millboro, and Lord Botetourt. The J.V. Colts defeated Buffalo Gap once by a score of 38-29 and in a hard-fought game dropped a close one to the Bisons by a score of 24 to 26. The only team which defeated them twice were the Covington Cougars by a score of 29-55, in the first game of the season and a much improved 22-25 later in the season. The Colts also found victory at the expense of Fort Defiance (46-40), Valley (29-23), and V.S.D.B. (30-17). This valuable experience and knowledge of basketball will be very much apparent in next year's varsity team.

Eighth Graders Gain Valuable Experience

Gaining valuable experience, but lacking points in the winning column, the youngsters of Alleghany basketball compiled a record of 1 win and 8 losses. This was not as dismal as it sounds though, as some of their games were lost by very narrow margins. The eighth grade team dropped a close one to Millboro by a score of 11 to 13. They were also defeated by few points when they tangled with James River (32-

37) and Lord Botetourt (23-29). Breeding into the winning column, the small Colts, led by Greg Anderson with ten points, defeated Central by a score of 22 to 14. The eighth graders, under the coaching of Robert Jefferies, were instilled with the basic fundamentals of basketball and the principles of good sportsmanship, faithful training, and hard fair playing, win or lose.

Wrestling Sparks New Interest in Sports

Gary Bush pins his Covington opponent for Alleghany's first pin.

Tommy Herald fights Covington's "Big Daddy" Waddell for position.

For the Alleghany wrestling team, this was a year of learning because this is the first year that ACHS has had a wrestling team. Coach Robert Rose and his matmen had two matches with Covington, both of which they lost. Because of this practice and experience and their desire and determination, the Colts should be a much improved team next year.

Success on the Diamond in '65

Via, Ralph Whitehead, Coach Bill Jonas. 3rd row: Stanley Nicely, Johnny Taylor, Barry Daniel, Rod Bush, Homer Loan, Bill McNabb.

1965 was a highly successful season for the Alleghany County High School Colts as they posted a 12-2 season mark. As in the two other major sports the Alleghany team finished as runner-up for the District 5 title. Two losses to Rockbridge were the only blemishes on the Colt record. These were dropped by scores of 9 to 5 and 5 to 3. Alleghany defeated all other opposition twice. They were: V.S.B. (8-2) and (6-5), Wilson Memorial (5-0) and (6-5), Valley (7-2) and (10-8), Covington (6-4) and (11-3), Clifton Forge (12-1) and (11-5), and Fort Defiance (7-1) and (10-2). The hitting of Taylor, Brown, McNabb, and Bush and pitching of Nicely and Whitehead accounted for a great deal of the strength of this year's team. These plus the hustling and fighting brand of play exhibited by the whole team enabled Coach Bill Jonas's Colts to become the powerhouse runner-ups in District 5.

Pitcher, Hiawatha Nicely connects with the ball for a hard-hit single.

First baseman, Barry Daniel awaits the throw from the pitcher in an attempt to pick off the opponent.

Against Covington, Johnny Taylor rounds first on his way home for a homerun as Jimmy McClung watches the ball's flight.

Gambling for an extra base, Covington's Jimmy McClung lunges into the bag as Bert Seldomridge makes the out.

Kneeling: Dennis Rhea, Roger Mays, Carl Ferguson. Standing: Coach Edward Rhea, Tommy Nichols, Doyet Moore, Bruce Swartz, manager.

Cross Country

Alleghany's 1964 cross country team had one win and three losses. They were runner-up in the District 5 meet, in which Doyet Moore, Tommy Nichols, and Roger Mays finished fourth, fifth, and sixth, respectively. In the Unclassified Division of the State Meet (Group IB and II), Nichols finished sixth, Moore came in tenth, and the team finished fifth in the meet and brought home one of ACHS's first trophies.

Doyet Moore is displaying the swiftness which helped him place fourth in the District 5 meet.

Track Team Builds Strength and Endurance

manager, Charlie Burr, Dennis Entsminger, James Nuckols, Ralph Whitehead, Howard Liptrap, George Yachan, Jim Faidly, Roy Swartz, Tommy Herald, Coach, Fred Johnson, A. W. Rhea.

The mile relay team, Loan, Sartain, King, and Liptrap practice their handoff which helped them to achieve their best speed at 3:38.

The track team closed the '65 season winning 1 meet, losing 2 and finishing 2nd in a triangular meet. In the first meet for the cindermen, a triangular meet with Clifton Forge and Lord Botetourt, Allegheny finished last. In the next meet, also a triangular meet, Allegheny finished second to Buffalo Gap and defeated Rockbridge. In a meet with Covington, the Cougars fell beneath the feet of the trackmen by a score of 86 to 23. In a contest, with Clifton Forge, Allegheny lost by a score of 65 to 53. In these four meets Wheatly and King both gained spotless records by winning over all competition, Wheatly in the mile and King in the low hurdles. In the Concord relays for Group B schools, Wheatly finished second in the mile and Allegheny finished second in both the 2 mile relay and mile relay and third in the 440 relay. At the District 5 meet King finished second in the low hurdles, Moore finished second in the 880 and the Allegheny mile relay team finished second. Track is a new sport at Allegheny and next year with the new track, the first of its kind in Allegheny County, the Colts should go on to greater heights. The success of this year's team, coached by Eddie Rhea, and the increasing enthusiasm for track among the students brought this sport to a recognized position in Allegheny athletics.

Miss Alcova

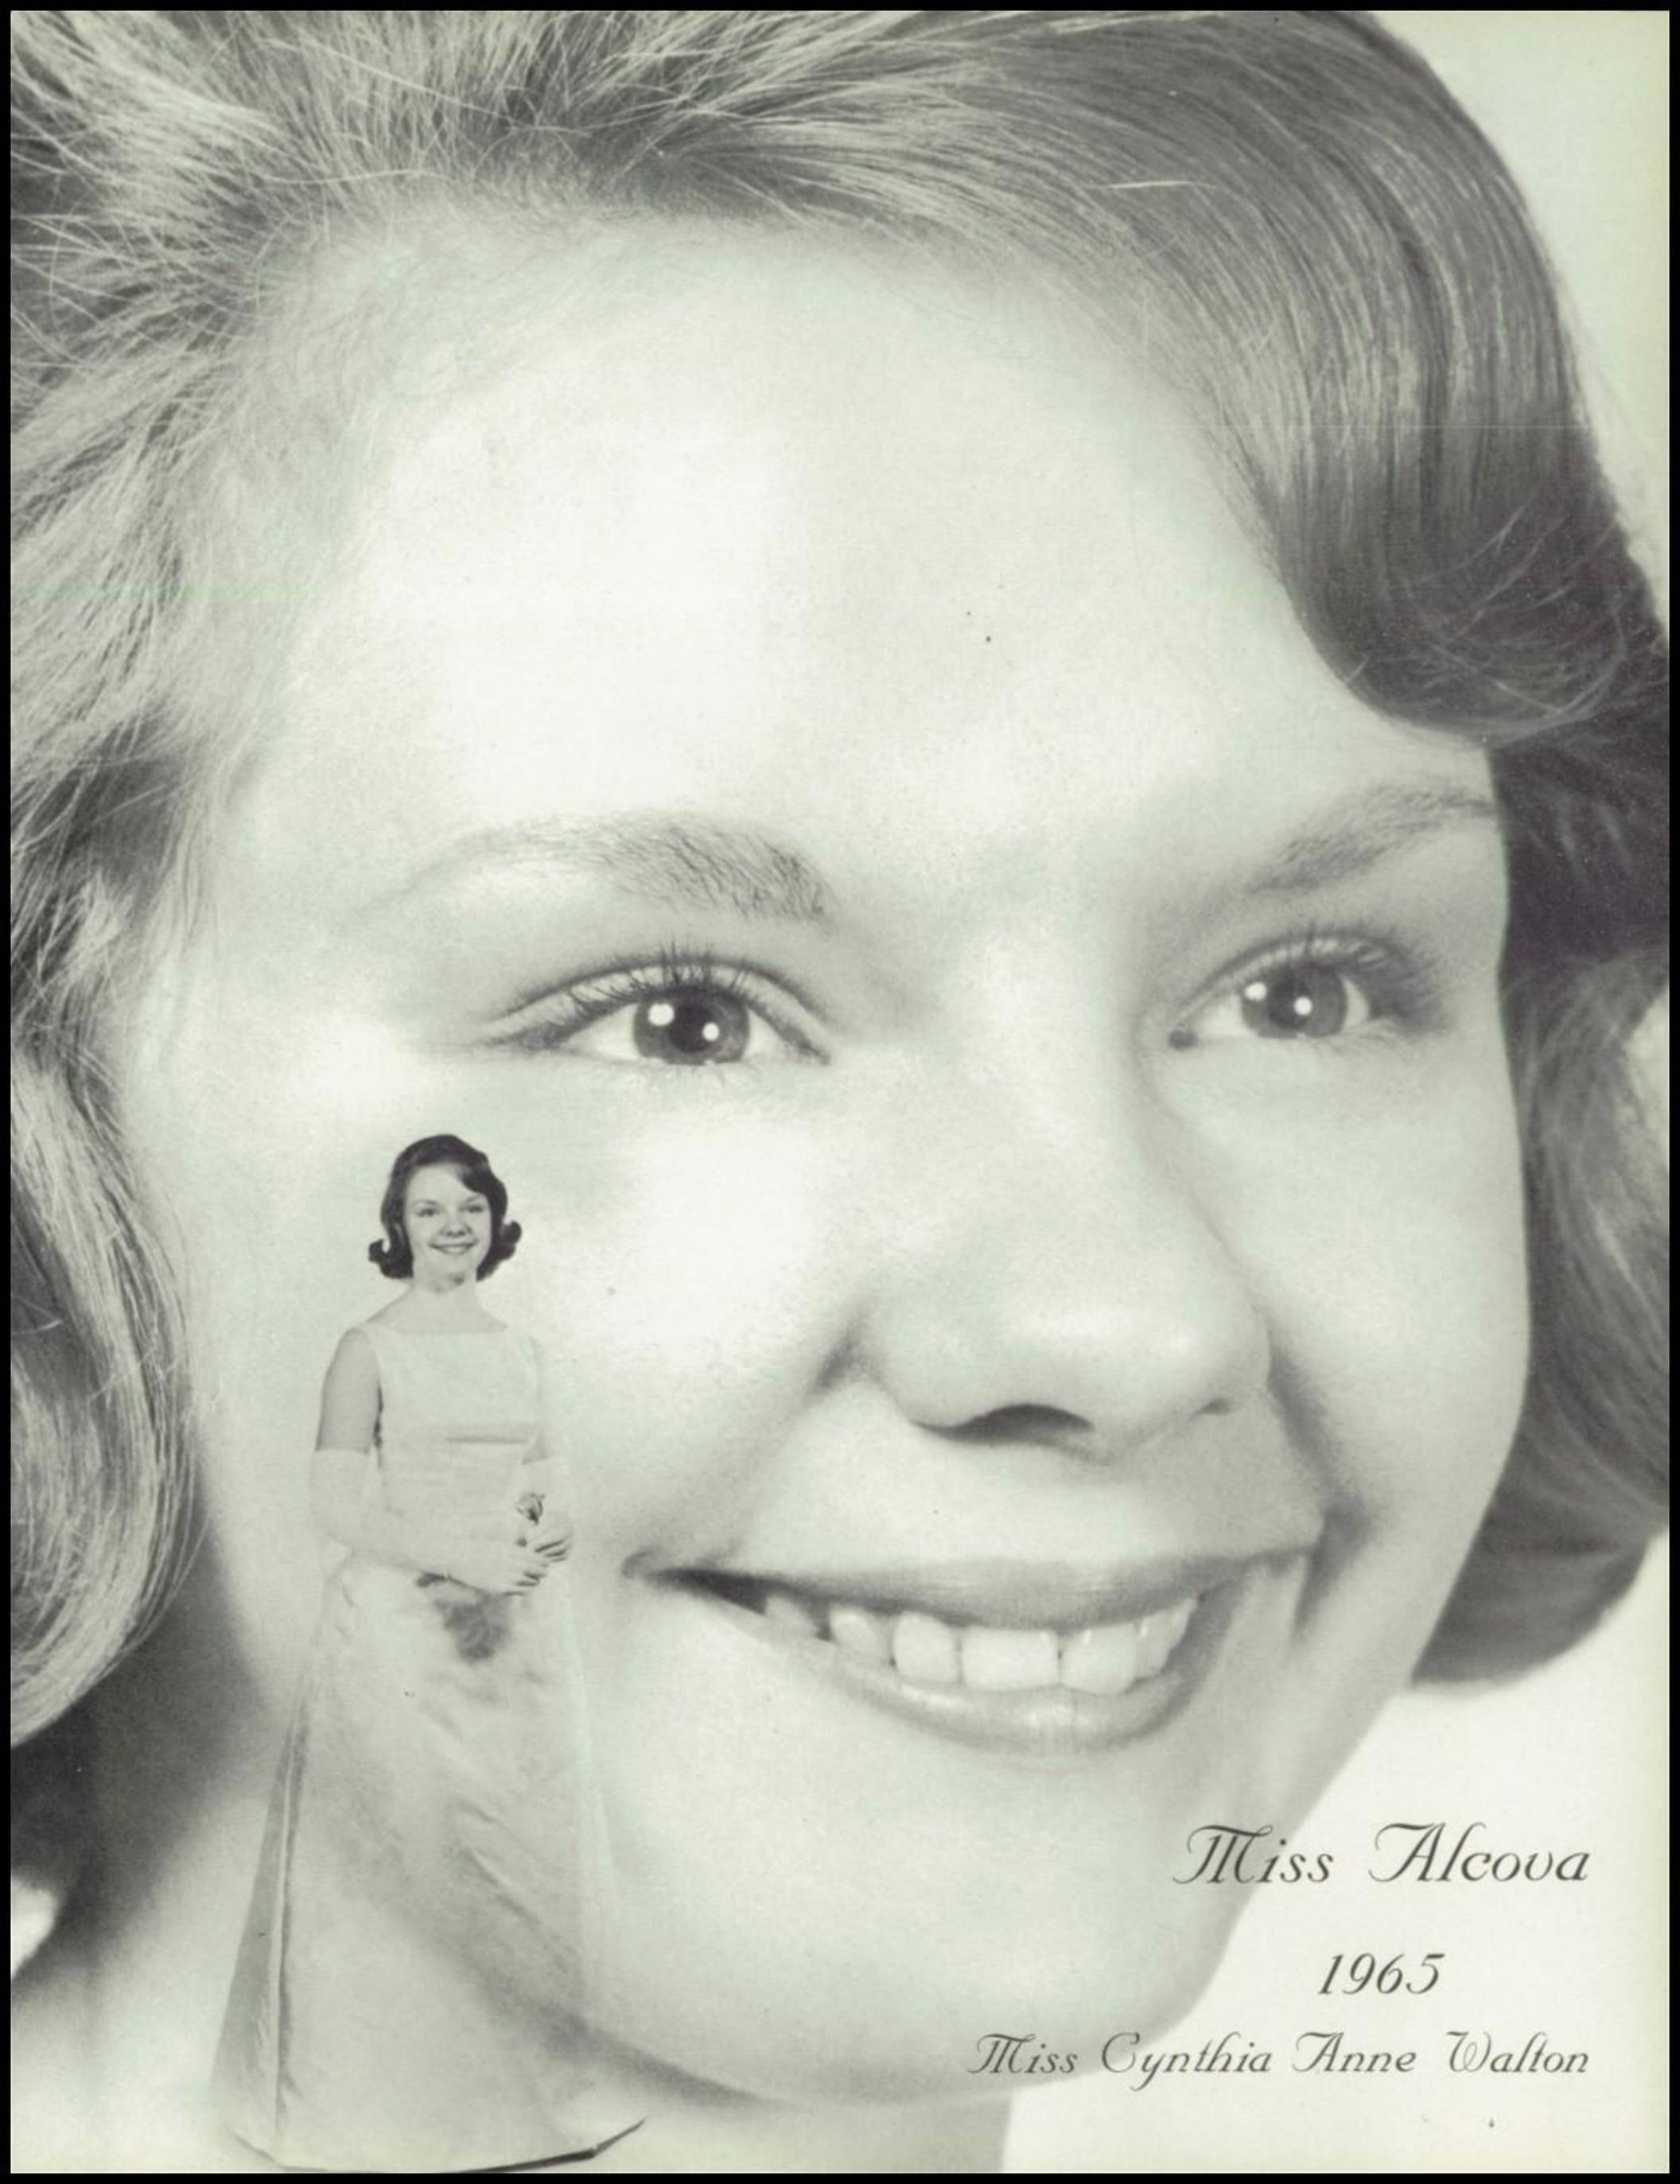

These lovely young ladies certainly do represent Alleghany County High School well: Sandra Sue Smith, Mary Wilson, Shiela Loomis, Cynthia Walton, Katherine Montgomery, Wanda Mynes, Virginia

Johnson, Barbara Wilson, Mary Loving Turner, Frances Padgett, Sandra Hepler, Jean Fleshman, Brenda Crowder, Beverly Siple, Georgia Herald.

One of the most exciting weeks of a girl's senior year is the week that Miss Alcova is chosen. This year's selection was very difficult because of the fine taste that the senior boys displayed when they elected the candidates.

A committee of experienced and well informed teachers held interviews with each candidate. The girls all tried to look their best when the day came for their interview; but beauty was not the primary interest of the committee. Personality, manners, dating habits, ability to work well with teachers and other students, and scholastic ability played key roles in the selection of the 1965 Miss Alcova.

The recipient of the coveted honor of Miss Alcova of 1965 is . . .

Homecoming Brings Cheers and Tears

It was very difficult for the students to make a decision between these radiant Homecoming Queen Candidates: Ramona Simmons, Georgia Herald, Katherine Montgomery, Brenda Crowder, Mary Loving Turner, Wanda Mynes.

Homecoming at ACHS held great meaning for many people this year. It was the first time alumni from ACHS could attend the ceremonies and actually feel a part of them. The air was static with the friction of the tense crowd as the Colts galloped over the James River Knights in a smashing 32-7 victory. The dance after the game was no less a part of the festive occasion. The gym was decorated in the colors of the school—red, white, blue. A large football hung from the center of the gym, reminding everyone of the excellent performance of our football team. Everyone was chatting excitedly about the beauty of the gym. It was a delightful evening and students and alumni of ACHS were glad to be a part of it.

A tearful but elated Luggum is crowned by Mr. Cvizic.

"The Play's The Thing"

"When you swallow a chicken heart, you marry the next man you shake hands with. Here goes—!" gulps Esther.

The ACHS seniors romped through their production of Sally Benson's and Christopher Sergel's three act comedy, "Meet Me In St. Louis," with an extraordinary air of confidence, enthusiasm, and finesse. The play was based on the efforts of the four daughters of the Smith family to sabotage their father's transfer from their home in St. Louis to his company's New York office. The hilarious antics of the daughters and the comical situations which arose because of their mischievousness kept the audience in stitches and the morale of the cast at record high. The play was exceptionally well cast and provided two hours of fun and entertainment for all who were present.

"Meet Me In St. Louis"

"This family is moving to New York—just as fast as we can. My mind's made up!" yells Mr. Smith after the kids wrecked a street car.

"The Fair's started!" shouts the Smith family as the fireworks from the St. Louis World's Fair illuminate the sky.

Mr. Dodge screams, "'Nothing' you call it! Why—Owwwww!" as Tootie bites his leg.

"You're transferring to Columbia University in New York?" cries Rose to Jon in despair. "But, we're not going to New York now!"

After a fine performance, the cast gathers for a portrait.

"I thought we'd got rid of you!" snarls Tootie to Lucille Pentard who is attempting to snare her brother, Lon.

Behind The Scenes

"Where is the lipstick?" "Somebody stepped on my dress!" "Get your finger out of my eye!" "What did you do with the cat?" Behind the scenes of "Meet Me In St. Louis" there was mayhem. Costumes were misplaced, make-up was smeared, hair-dos were done and redone, and lines were rehearsed and rehearsed. Everyone was in a hilarious mood and practical jokes were flying everywhere. If it had not been for the good humor and patience of everyone, the play could not have been such a big success.

This Way To Candy Heaven

Dreamy eyes, soft music, and hushed whispers are reminiscent of the Christmas formal.

Girls with the starry look of Christmas formals in their eyes and boys with anticipation of vacation written on their faces made Christmas at Alleghany.

Carols from around the world filled the halls prior to Christmas vacation and classroom doors were festively decorated. Baskets of food, toys, and gaily wrapped presents were found in every room. A lovely Christmas tree graced the cafeteria and a showcase full of golden angels met us at the front door.

On the night of the Christmas formal, the way to Candy Heaven led the dancers to a gym full of candy canes, gingerbread men, and cookies. The Christmas formal with its colorful scenes of "Candy Heaven" climaxed the holiday festivities here at ACHS. From the time Santa Claus presented each couple with a candy cane as they entered the scene, until the Pavalons closed the musical program with a dreamy song of farewell, the spirit of Christmas and the expectation of joyous holidays filled the air. As the curtain fell at the end of a perfect evening, everyone felt that Christmas had truly come to ACHS this year.

The cafeteria is decorated for the enjoyment of the students.

Donnie Wheatley, John Swartz, Glenn Minnix, Helen Deisher, Hunter Fridley, and Mary Andrews, members of the JCL, re-enact the Nativity.

"Through Mary's Window"

The Latin Club of ACHS presented a Christmas pageant on December 17, 1964. The Script for the pageant, "Through Mary's Window", was taken from St. Matthew and St. Luke. The Biblical characters were portrayed by these students: Mary, Helen Deisher; Joseph, Hunter Fridley; the Wise Men, Dewayne Loan, Dale Peters, and Jedy Sartain; the Shepherds, Glenn Minnix, John Swartz, and Donnie Wheatley; the Angel, Mary Andrews; narrator, Paul Warwick.

The vocal class furnished the music. Cherie Davis, a member of the class, sang "O Holy Night" to close the program. Mr. Robert Hughes had the benediction.

Miss Mary Helen Wolfe and Miss Lucy Gleason directed the pageant.

The band under the direction of Mr. Baber, herald the Christmas season with traditional carols.

"Let Me Call You Sweetheart"

"Let Me Call You Sweetheart." This was the theme which created the romantic atmosphere for the Sweetheart Dance at ACHS this year. The gym, decorated with lovely red and white streamers, provided a beautiful setting for the dance. A local band, the Telestars, played a melody of songs for the students to dance by. During the evening the main highlight was the crowning of Miss Beverly Siple as Sweetheart Queen.

Sponsored by the Tri-Hi-Y the dance proved to be a success and everyone left the dance feeling as though Cupid's arrow had struck its mark.

Beverly Siple, Sweetheart Queen, and her escort, Wayne Loan, view the dance after Beverly was crowned.

Chez Paree

Surrounded by the gay atmosphere of an evening in Paris, Mary Andrews admires the sparkling fountain in a Parisian garden as Donnie Wheatley admires her.

Dancing in a Parisian square, Dennis Entsminger and Sandra Bradley, Butch Dearing and Judy Bazzaree, Dennis Harmon and Donna Bennett appear to have caught the mood of Paris.

Betty Blake and John Dudley, Ashby Rhea and Bobbie Wilson dance to the strains of a Parisian love song.

Queen Kathy Montgomery and King Rod Bush pause in a sidewalk café with Mr. Czivic and Prince Don Wheatley and Princess Kathy Taylor. The seniors nominated the candidates for King and Queen and the juniors voted for them. Kathy and Donnie were chosen by their fellow classmates.

At the end of a perfect evening, Kathy Scholz and Barney Butler, Linda Cross and Horton Beirne, Sandra Sue Smith and Rodney Smith, Beverly Siple and Dewayne Loan, Brenda Crowder and Denny Miller, Donna Bennett and Dennis Harmon leave the Prom with a bit of Paris in their hearts.

"Love, the Most Important Thing In the World"

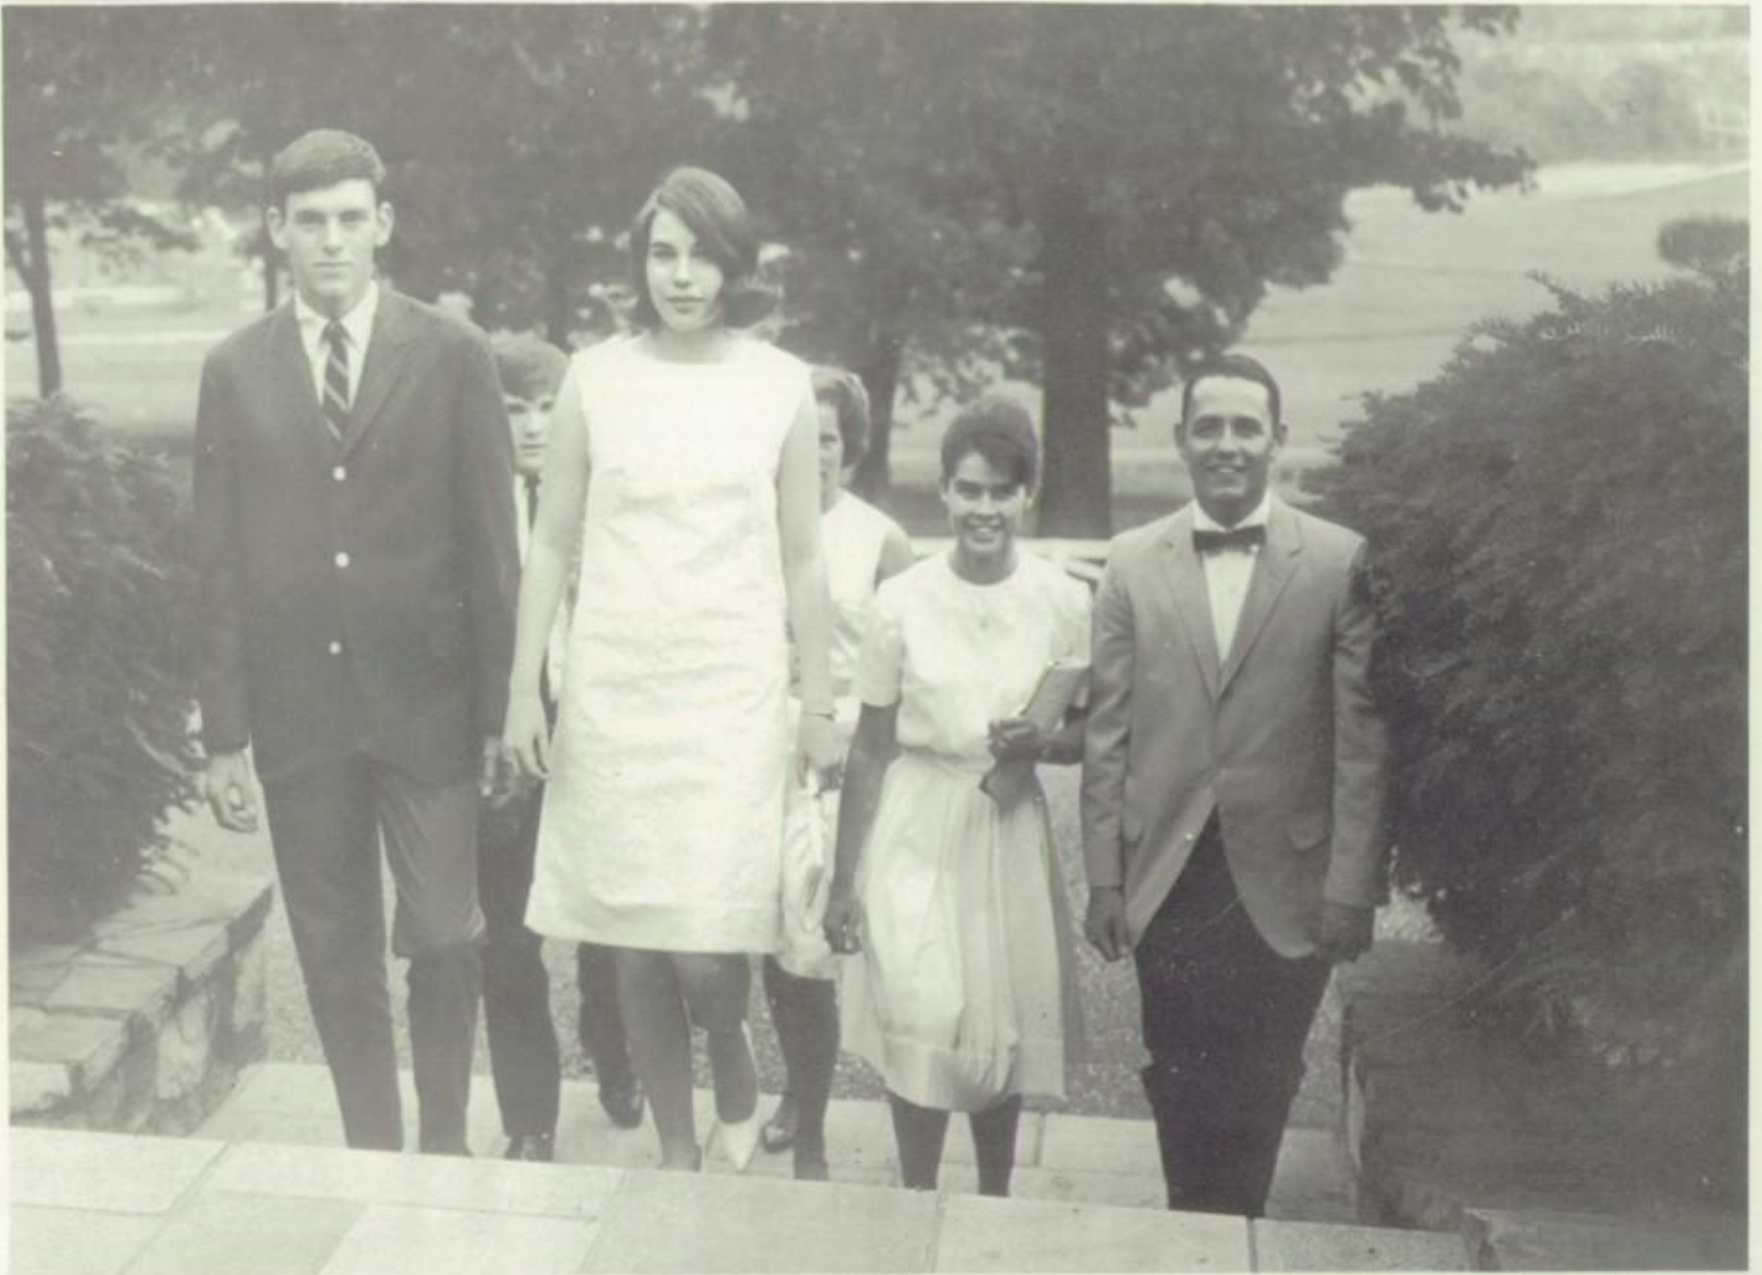

The vocal class under the direction of Mr. Baber sang for baccalaureate on Sunday, May 30. Mr. Hughes gave the sermon, "Love, the Most Important Thing In the World," after Mr. Holbert, ACHS athletic director, introduced him.

Ten honor students march out after the sermon. They are Linda Peters, Kathy Scholz, Bobbie Wilson, Neville Buck, Dennis Entsminger, Alma Williams, Eunice Davidson, Brenda Wolfe, Helen Deisher, and Sandra Sue Smith.

Senior Banquet Marks the Beginning

of Graduation Festivities

Cool air was blowing and excitement was running high as the Seniors gathered on the Country Club porch for their banquet. After a sumptuous meal, Rod Bush, Class President, introduced Chet Swartz as emcee for the evening.

Chet gave a little speech that touched the hearts of everyone there. He described what ACHS had meant to him and what a "fun-filled" two years it had been. His comparison of us to a "big, happy family" expressed how everyone felt.

Dewayne Loan sang "Moon River" as Sandra Sue Smith accompanied him. Donna Dennett read "It Couldn't Be Done" by Edgar Guest.

When the evening came to a close, the Seniors reluctantly left with tears in their eyes along with a gleam of hope for the future.

Junior Honor Marshals Host Graduation

Each year those juniors with the highest averages are chosen to be Honor Marshals for the graduation exercises. Their duties are to hand out programs, to usher the guests to their seats, and to help in any way possible to make the guests comfortable.

It is quite an honor to be chosen as an Honor Marshal and the juniors work hard all year so that they might achieve this reward. Juniors who participate in the graduation exercises learn what they have in store for them next year and look forward to their own graduation with greater anticipation.

Sandra Sue Smith and Helen Deisher took top honors this year at ACHS. Sandra Sue was named valedictorian and Helen was the close runner-up. Above are the top ten, academically, in the graduating class. These ten students led the class into the auditorium and were awarded their diplomas first. Being an honor graduate is certainly an honor to be long remembered by the lucky ten who are chosen.

Dear Graduate,

Congratulations on the successful completion of your high school curriculum. You have passed a most vital and important phase of preparation for your future.

Your standard of living, your position in the life of your community and your economic security may well depend on the amount of education you take with you when you seek employment.

For those of you who are qualified to benefit by higher education, may we urge you to take it, if you can possibly do so.

Tree farming is a GROWING business

Proof? Ten years ago, there were only 16 million acres of woodlands on the nation's accredited Tree Farms. Today, there are almost 50 million acres, a three-fold increase. Each Tree Farm is being operated as a private enterprise, growing trees for a regular cash income, just like any other crop.

One of the big reasons why tree farming is a growing business is because the market for wood is growing. Annual consumption of wood products is rising at a steady rate and continues to rise as our economy expands.

The country's tree farmers are able to supply these growing needs because they are employing scientific forestry methods in cutting, harvesting, seeding and through the protection of their timber from fire and disease. This is good news not only for tree farmers and wood-using industries, but also for the nation.

Sarah,
Need a darker pen don't I. Will I don't have one so I will just put the girl to it with this pen. I had you in a lot of my classes and there was no one there that I thought any more of. Sarah you are a real cute and sweet girl. Stay that way too. Will Sarah that's what I say, "see what I mean," "that's what you gotta do all right" To a friend always

Love ya!
Dayt
